CONVICTED OF MURDER

Giving no credence to the plea of insanity, the jury in Judge De Bolt's court yesterday took thirty-five minutes to find George Kaleikini guilty of murder in the first degree. City Attorney Cathcart had addressed the jury for the prosecution and W. C. Achi for the defendant.

Forty-eight hours must elapse between conviction and sentence for a capital offense. Kaleikini shot his wife to death, on her refusal to return home with him, on the night of August 16 last. The jury that has found him guilty was composed largely of his native countrymen. Evidently the fits thrown in their presence by his mother and himself, indicating ostensibly an epileptic condition by heredity in Kaleikini, failed to make an impression on the jurors sufficient to counteract the preponderance of medical evidence that he was sane.

NEW NAVAL BUILDING PROGRAM

Newlands Proposes Twelve Million Dollars for Transports, Cruisers, Scouts, etc.

ACAPULCO, February 16.—Three hundred persons were cremated yesterday in a burning theater here, the list of victims including many prominent persons from the City of Mexico and several Americans. There were heartrending scenes during the progress of the fire, which started from a moving picture machine.

NEWLANDS SUGGESTS NEW

NAVAL BUILDING PROGRAM WASHINGTON, February 16.—Senator Newlands of Nevada has offered an amendment to the Naval Bill, appropriating twelve million dollars for the construction of vessels for the transport service, for despatch boats, cruisers and scouts, which would be necessary in time of war, but which might be used for commercial purposes during times of peace.

MAY HAVE TO BORROW.

Senator Hale predicts that if the increase in the naval program is to continue, it will become necessary for the government to borrow money for construction.

ROOSEVELT MAY LIVE IN WEST

PRESIDENT ONCE PLANNED TO ESTABLISH HIS HOME IN A WESTERN STATE.

(Special Correspondence.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., February 6.—When it was recently rumored that President Roosevelt, on his return from Africa, intended to take up his permanent abode in the West, it was semi-officially announced at the White House that the story was incorrect; that Mr. Roosevelt, because of his magazine connection, intended to maintain his residence at Oyster Bay. Whatever may be the fact today (and the newspaper job may have altered circumstances) it is a fact that only a couple of years ago the President, in talking of his future, said he would like, upon retiring from the White House, to go out into one of the Rocky Mountain states and establish a residence. It was then his ultimate aim to be sent to the United States Senate from the state in which he located. He thought it would "be just bully" to be able to spend his summers in the West and his winters in Washington.

Perhaps, if he tires of his new job as magazine editor, he may yet go back to the country he loves, and in the end achieve his old ambition. Certainly any western state in which he might settle would welcome the opportunity of sending him to the Senate.

This evening the Civic Federation will hold its annual meeting. Ladies, legislators and all good people are invited. Marston Campbell, with the aid of pictures and drawings, will tell about his projected improvement of the city water supply system.
